

PAST PROJECTS

S.A. MOVIMIENTO

Mural Director/Muralist: Alexandra Mitnick

This mural was created for the Belmont Center for Families, a part of the Salvation Army's HIV/AIDS Services in the Greater New York area. S.A Movimiento was designed and painted by clients and staff of the Belmont Center, under the guidance of Alexandra Mitnick. It was named by those involved to represent the transformation and movement that people go through in their lives when living with HIV/AIDS.

GO GIRLS!

Mural Director/Muralist: Alexandra Mitnick

This mural was created for the Bronx AIDS Services, Inc. for their new program GO GIRL! (Girls' Outreach: Groups Improve Resiliency Learning). It was designed and painted by fourteen young women ages 14-17, who are peer educators within the program. It represents problems they strive to overcome, building collective strength, and empowerment through informed choices, education, and personal growth.

SHINE ON ME

Mural Director/Muralist: Alexandra Mitnick

This mural was created for the AIDS Service Center (ASC), a social support agency for people affected by HIV/AIDS. The mural was designed and painted by the clients and staff of the ASC under the guidance of the muralist. The goal of the mural is to welcome people to the agency and provide them with an overall feeling of the center. It is currently in the ASC lobby at their 5th Avenue location in Manhattan.

CIRCLES OF LIFE

Mural Director/Muralist: Alexandra Mitnick

This mural was created for the AIDS Service Center (ASC), a social support agency for people affected by HIV/AIDS. The mural was designed and painted by the clients and staff of the ASC under the guidance of the muralist. The mural expresses the emotions of clients and staff at ASC. It visually depicts the process of healing for a person affected by the HIV/AIDS virus. It is currently in the ASC conference/group room at their 5th Avenue location in Manhattan.

WOMEN'S HEALTH COMMUNITY MURAL PROJECT

Mural Project Director: Alexandra Mitnick
Muralist: Bryan Collier

This mural was directed by Alexandra Mitnick for the Breast Examination Center of Harlem (BECH), a community program that provides free breast and cervical cancer screening in the Harlem community. Breast cancer survivors, BECH staff, patients, and community members designed the mural to raise awareness about health behaviors and services related to breast cancer prevention.

Sponsors of the mural include Step Up Women's Network, Aaliyah Memorial Fund, Essence Magazine, New York State Department of Health, Blockbuster and Johnson & Johnson. Friends of the Mural include Rebecca Romijn-Stamos, Rosario Dawson, Rita Moreno, Iman, and Angie Stone.
